ARCHITECTURAL DRAWING

Section Drawings, Type BAYLY-3B

Cross sections through 34 Bayly, house type BAYLY-3B, showing floor to floor heights and the construction build up.

Construction

- Insulated floor, wall and roof build ups are shown with their layers labelled.
- Floor to floor and floor to ceiling heights are dimensioned.

Thermal line

- The continuous insulation line is indicated to show how the fabric is kept airtight and warm.
- Junctions at floor, eaves and openings are detailed to limit heat loss.

Note

Sections are read together with the plans and elevations. Where a detail drawing is referenced, that detail governs.
